

GENWUNNER WEBSITE MASTER BRIEF

Complete brand, site strategy, pages, features, and Claude build prompt

Core Identity

Artist Name: Genwunner

Real Name / Public Name: Genesis “Genwunner” Tajiri, also associated with Shango Sheffield

Based In: Los Angeles

Genre: Self-coined PokéRage

Tagline Energy: Pokémon nostalgia meets rage rap, internet chaos, anime convention culture, mosh pits, memes, and collectible fandom.

Genwunner is a Pokémon-inspired rage-rap artist and creator of Big Man Blastoise, a viral character/song/world that has become the center of his current breakout moment.

The project lives at the intersection of: Pokémon / anime / gaming / rap / rage music / memes / convention culture / collectibles / fashion / chaos / comedy / fandom.

The tone should feel like: Detective Pikachu meets SoundCloud rage rap meets anime convention mosh pit meets rare holographic trading card.

Not too corporate. Not too clean. Not boring. It should feel alive, collectible, funny, nostalgic, and slightly unhinged in a smart way.

Artist Bio

Genwunner debuted online with the single “GENGAR” on June 6, 2022 — released on 6/6/6 energy — to basically zero monthly listeners. From there, he built the project through a mix of Pokémon nostalgia, internet humor, TikTok carousel strategy, rage-rap performance, and a clear visual identity.

Early on, Genwunner would repost Pokémon-related comics and memes on TikTok carousels while placing his music underneath them. Some of these posts reached 100,000 views to millions of views, helping seed his music into Pokémon meme culture.

His major breakout came through “BLASTOISE!”, also known through the viral Big Man Blastoise moment. The song became associated with massive user-generated content, memes, edits, and TikTok activity. One major turning point was a Pokkén-style edit by SHYBAKA129, which reportedly hit millions of views in a week and helped turn “BLASTOISE!” into a much larger cultural moment.

Genwunner’s identity is built around being “the guy who created Big Man Blastoise.”

Key Stats / Proof Points

- Creator of “Big Man Blastoise”
- Self-coined genre: PokéRage
- 543K monthly listeners
- 6M+ Spotify streams in 2025
- 195K playlist adds
- 20M+ views/streams across platforms

- 1B+ organic UGC views connected to “BLASTOISE!”
- “PSYDUCK!” reached 100K+ streams in under a month
- Performs at anime, gaming, TCG, and nerd-culture conventions
- Has performed or been booked around events including Anime NYC, Anime Expo, MomoCon, Otakufest Miami, GalaxyCon Raleigh, Anime Impulse OC, Collect-A-Con Charlotte, Long Island TCG Show, Nerdz & Hip-Hop Mini-Con, and more

These numbers should be easy to update in the backend/admin or inside a simple data file.

Major Songs / Releases

GENGAR

First Genwunner single. Released June 6, 2022. This is the origin point.

BLASTOISE!

The breakout record. The Big Man Blastoise song. Viral engine. Core brand pillar.

Big Man Blastoise

Could be treated as the larger cultural moment / character / movement around the song.

PSYDUCK!

Follow-up record with strong momentum. 100K+ streams in under a month.

POKEFLUTE! ft. Shofu

First-ever collab single. Important because Shofu is already respected in Pokémon/music/internet culture, so this adds legitimacy and scene connection.

Current Goals

- Convert viral attention into owned audience: email list, SMS list, Discord/community funnel, fan club/newsletter signup.
- Make Genwunner bookable: convention bookings, live shows, anime/gaming/TCG events, fan activations, college shows, brand events.
- Sell merch: Big Man Blastoise merch, music video merch, limited drops, collectibles, stickers, parody trading cards, QR-code hybrid drops, higher-ticket clothing drops.
- Build a lore/world hub: PokéRage universe, Big Man Blastoise character, music videos, meme archive, fan edits, fan art, “choose your starter” interactivity.
- Support press / industry credibility: bio, stats, press quotes, performance history, EPK, photos, logos, contact info.
- Support fan activation events in LA, ATL, Chicago, Houston, Dallas, NY.
- Become a home base independent of algorithms. TikTok and IG brought people in, but the site should capture them permanently.

Site Personality

The website should not feel like a normal artist landing page. It should feel like a Pokémon game menu / chaotic rap artist world / convention booth / collectible card binder / underground fan club.

Suggested vibe words

- Nostalgic
- Chaotic
- Funny
- Collectible
- Internet-native
- Slightly aggressive
- Fan-first
- Anime con energy

Recommended Website Pages

1. Home Page

Purpose: immediate impact.

- Hero section with Big visual of Genwunner / Big Man Blastoise world.
- Headline options: “WELCOME TO THE POKÉRAGE UNIVERSE.” / “BIG MAN BLASTOISE LIVES HERE.” / “GENWUNNER: THE SOUND OF THE MOSH PIT AFTER CHOOSING SQUIRTLE.”
- CTA buttons: Watch “Big Man Blastoise”, Stream Genwunner, Join the Wunnerdex, Buy Merch, Book Genwunner.
- Viral proof section: 1B+ UGC views. 543K monthly listeners. 6M+ Spotify streams. One Big Man Blastoise.
- Featured video: embed newest music video or Big Man Blastoise video.
- Latest drop: current single, merch, or upcoming event.
- Email capture: “Join the Wunnerdex for drops, shows, secret links, and unreleased chaos.”
- Fields: email, phone optional, city, favorite Pokémon optional, Instagram/TikTok optional.

- Tour/pop-ups, shop preview, and social links.

2. Music Page

Purpose: direct fans to streaming. Include Spotify, Apple Music, YouTube, SoundCloud if relevant, TikTok sound links, and discography cards.

- Featured songs: BLASTOISE!, Big Man Blastoise, PSYDUCK!, POKEFLUTE! ft. Shofu, GENGAR.
- Each song card: cover art, stream buttons, watch button if there is a video, TikTok sound button, short lore blurb.

Example: BLASTOISE! - The song that summoned Big Man Blastoise and turned rage rap into a water-type event.

3. Videos Page

Purpose: make the world visual. Include Big Man Blastoise music video, visualizers, live performance clips, fan edits, TikTok embeds, convention recap videos, and a Fan Edits section where fans can submit their own.

4. Shows / Events Page

Purpose: bookings and fan attendance. Include upcoming shows, past shows, convention appearances, pop-ups, fan activations, RSVP links, and a “Bring Genwunner to your city” form.

- Known target markets: Los Angeles, Atlanta, Chicago, New York, Houston, Dallas.
- Special idea: Big Man Blastoise Viewing Party / Fan Activation Series.
- Each city page/event can include venue, time, RSVP, merch available, short set, unreleased music preview, group Pokémon-themed activation, meetup/photo-op, fan challenge.

5. Merch / Shop Page

Purpose: monetize the viral moment.

- Big Man Blastoise merch: tees, hoodies, hats, posters, water-type themed items, music video merch.
- Collectibles: $1 collectible sticker singles, parody trading cards, QR-code cards, limited holographic-style drops, convention-exclusive items.
- Bundles: Starter pack, Big Man Blastoise bundle, Wunnerdex bundle, music video victory lap bundle.
- Drop mechanics: limited-time drops, sold-out states, email/SMS waitlist, early access code, city-exclusive merch, convention-exclusive merch, QR-code unlockables.
- Important: Genwunner has liked the idea of a $1 price-point collectible economy that funnels fans into higher-ticket merch.

6. Community / Wunnerdex Page

Purpose: owned fanbase. The Wunnerdex = Genwunner's fan registry / club / PokéRage community.

- Signup fields: email, phone optional, city, birthday optional, favorite Pokémon, favorite Genwunner song, Instagram/TikTok handle, would you come to a pop-up, would you buy merch, would you join Discord, would you submit fan art/edits.
- After signup: secret music links, early merch access, pop-up invites, fan art submissions, Discord access, voting on merch, city raid alerts.

Possible copy: “Join the Wunnerdex. Get drops, shows, secret links, and Big Man Blastoise sightings before the civilians.”

7. Booking Page

Purpose: make it easy for conventions, promoters, brands, and colleges to book Genwunner.

- Book Genwunner for anime conventions, gaming conventions, TCG events, Pokémon-themed parties, college shows, nightlife events, brand activations, music festivals, private events, fan meetups/pop-ups.
- Booking fields: name, company/event, email, phone, event date, event city, venue, budget range, type of event, expected attendance, performance length, travel coverage, notes.
- Performance offerings: full live set, short pop-up set, convention performance, meet & greet, merch booth appearance, music video viewing event, fan activation, Pokémon-themed crowd activation, unreleased listening session.

8. EPK / Press Page

Purpose: industry credibility. Include short bio, long bio, photos, logos, press quotes, stats, performance history, selected videos, music links, contact info, downloadable press kit.

EPK copy: Genwunner is a Los Angeles-based PokéRage artist and internet-native performer turning Pokémon nostalgia, rage rap, memes, and convention culture into a full-scale fan movement. Best known for the viral “Big Man Blastoise” phenomenon, Genwunner has generated massive organic UGC momentum, hundreds of thousands of monthly listeners, and a growing live presence across anime, gaming, and TCG conventions.

Press quote to include if desired: “Blastoise is finally winning a popularity contest over Charizard, and it rules.” — Kotaku

9. Fan Submissions Page

Purpose: turn fans into collaborators. Fans can submit fan art, edits, memes, dance videos, Pokémon teams inspired by Genwunner, Big Man Blastoise sightings, cosplay, cover/remix ideas.

- Form fields: name, email, social handle, upload file or link, permission checkbox to repost, credit preference.

10. Contact Page

Separate contact categories: booking, management, press, merch/customer support, collabs/features, fan submissions, general.

- For booking, press, label, and business inquiries: Genwunnermgmt email.
- For merch support: separate support email.
- For fan submissions: form only.

Important Website Functions

Must-Have Functions

- Email capture - main CTA throughout the site; city field is important for fan activations.
- Merch store - Shopify, Fourthwall, Squarespace Commerce, or custom store; must handle limited drops.
- Music/video embeds - Spotify, Apple Music, YouTube, TikTok.
- Booking form - serious inquiries only, budget field required.
- Event RSVP system - for pop-ups and viewing parties; collect city and email.
- Fan submission portal - accept links/files with permission to repost.
- EPK download - PDF or downloadable press assets.
- Analytics - track email signups, merch clicks, streaming link clicks, city demand, booking inquiries.
- Mobile-first design - most traffic will come from TikTok/IG; must load fast and look crazy on phones.
- Social links everywhere - TikTok, Instagram, YouTube, Spotify, Apple Music, Discord if active.

Advanced Functions That Would Be Fire

- Choose Your Starter entry screen: Blastoise, Gengar, Psyduck, Snorlax/other future characters. Each choice changes the theme or sends them to different content.
- Wunnerdex fan registry: a fan database styled like a Pokédex. Fans register and unlock secret pages, early merch, tour alerts, fan challenges, digital badges.
- City Raid Map: fans sign up under their city; city with most signups gets a pop-up, merch drop, listening party, or secret event.
- Big Man Blastoise sightings: fan-submitted gallery of memes, edits, art, photos, and sightings.
- Trading Card merch system: each release/drop gets a collectible card with QR code, rarity tier, character art, lore, drop number, and city-exclusive version.
- Secret pages unlocked by QR codes on merch/cards, such as /rare-candy, /bigman, /pokeflute, /gym, /wunnerdex, /water-type.
- Bring Genwunner to My City voting: collect city, email, attendance interest, friends, merch interest, preferred venue type.
- Discord funnel: landing page or locked invite; could require email signup first.
- Meme generator: simple web tool where fans create Big Man Blastoise memes using templates.
- Fan challenges: best Big Man Blastoise edit, water-type fit, Pokémon bar, mosh pit clip, fan art, cosplay.

Fan Activation Section

You have been thinking about doing IRL fan activations/viewings in your top markets: Los Angeles, Atlanta, Chicago, Houston, Dallas, New York.

The site should support this directly.

- Each city activation page should include RSVP, ticket/free entry info, merch preview, schedule, venue, short set info, unreleased music preview, fan challenge, group photo/video moment, Pokémon-themed activity, and optional Pokémon GO gym takeover info if legally/logistically allowed.
- For ATL, you specifically liked the idea of tying the activation around MomoCon weekend and possibly centering it near Stankonia Studios / a local Pokémon GO gym.
- The site could have a section called "BIG MAN BLASTOISE CITY RAIDS." Each city gets a raid page.

Brand / Lore Concepts

Big Man Blastoise

The main mascot/moment. Could be treated as character, song, movement, video, merch line, fan identity.

PokéRage

Pokémon nostalgia filtered through rage rap, internet humor, mosh pits, anime conventions, and chaotic fan culture.

The Wunnerdex

Fan club / mailing list / registry.

City Raids

Pop-ups and fan activations.

Wunner Gym

Could be the community hub or Discord.

Rare Candy

Could be secret drops or exclusive content.

Victory Road

Could be tour dates or artist journey timeline.

Suggested Website Navigation

- Top nav: Home, Music, Videos, Shows, Merch, Wunnerdex, Book Genwunner, EPK.
- Mobile sticky buttons: Stream, Merch, Join, Book.

Suggested Homepage Wireframe

- Full-screen hero: GENWUNNER / BIG MAN BLASTOISE / POKÉRAGE
- CTA buttons: Watch Video / Stream / Join Wunnerdex / Shop Merch
- Viral proof stats: 1B+ UGC Views / 543K Monthly Listeners / 6M+ Spotify Streams
- Embedded music video
- Latest release card: POKEFLUTE! ft. Shofu or current single
- Upcoming shows/pop-ups
- Merch preview
- Wunnerdex signup
- Fan edits / UGC wall
- Booking/EPK footer

Backend / Admin Needs

- Artist stats
- Upcoming shows
- Merch drops
- Featured video
- Latest release
- Press quotes
- Fan submissions
- City activation pages
- Email signup export
- Booking inquiries

Ideally use a simple CMS or structured JSON/content file.

Best Tech Stack Options

Option A: Fast Custom Site

- Next.js, Tailwind CSS, Framer Motion, Supabase for fan signups/submissions, Shopify or Fourthwall for merch, Resend/Mailchimp/Klaviyo for email, Vercel hosting.

Option B: Easier No-Code Hybrid

- Webflow or Framer site, Shopify/Fourthwall merch, Typeform/Tally forms, Mailchimp/Klaviyo email, Zapier automations.

Option C: Simple Landing Page First

- One-page Next.js site, email signup, merch links, booking form, music/video embeds, EPK download.

Recommendation: Start with Option C, but design it like Option A. Do not overbuild before the Big Man Blastoise moment is fully captured.

Claude Prompt You Can Use

I am building a website for Genwunner, a Los Angeles-based PokéRage artist and creator of the viral "Big Man Blastoise" movement.

The site should feel like Pokémon nostalgia, rage rap, anime convention culture, internet memes, collectibles, and mosh pit energy. It should not feel like a generic artist website. It should feel like entering a chaotic collectible fan universe.

Core facts:

- Artist: Genwunner
- Real/public name: Genesis "Genwunner" Tajiri / Shango Sheffield
- Based in Los Angeles
- Genre: self-coined "PokéRage"
- Creator of Big Man Blastoise
- Debut single "GENGAR" released June 6, 2022
- Breakout record: "BLASTOISE!"
- Follow-up: "PSYDUCK!"
- First collab single: "POKEFLUTE!" ft. Shofu
- 543K monthly listeners
- 6M+ Spotify streams in 2025
- 195K playlist adds
- 20M+ views/streams across platforms
- 1B+ organic UGC views connected to "BLASTOISE!"
- Performs at anime, gaming, TCG, and nerd-culture conventions

Main goals:

1. Capture fans into an owned email/SMS list
2. Sell merch and limited collectible drops
3. Make Genwunner easy to book for conventions/shows/brand events
4. House music videos, fan edits, lore, and press assets
5. Support city-based fan activations in LA, ATL, Chicago, NY, Houston, and Dallas
6. Create a fan club/community called "The Wunnerdex"

Pages needed:

- Home
- Music
- Videos
- Shows/Events
- Merch
- Wunnerdex
- Book Genwunner
- EPK/Press
- Fan Submissions
- Contact

Important features:

- Email signup with city field

- Booking form
- Fan submission form
- City activation RSVP pages
- Merch store integration
- Spotify/Apple/YouTube/TikTok embeds
- EPK download
- Press stats section
- UGC/fan edits gallery
- "Bring Genwunner to my city" voting
- Secret QR-code unlock pages for merch/cards
- Mobile-first design

Design direction:

Make it feel like a Pokémon game menu, rare trading card binder, convention booth, and underground rap site combined. Use bold typography, animated UI, collectible card sections, glitch/water effects, pixel/game-like touches, and fun CTAs.

Key language:

- Join the Wunnerdex
- Enter the PokéRage Universe
- Big Man Blastoise Lives Here
- City Raids
- Rare Drops
- Stream the Anthems
- Book Genwunner
- Catch the Next Drop
- Report to the Gym

Please build a complete website plan, page structure, copy, component list, data schema, and implementation plan. Then create the initial code for a mobile-first Next.js + Tailwind landing page with sections for hero, stats, video, music, merch, events, Wunnerdex signup, booking CTA, and footer.

Strong Recommendation

Your site should not just be "Genwunner.com." It should be the home base for the Big Man Blastoise / PokéRage universe.

The main conversion should be: TikTok/IG viewer → website → Wunnerdex signup → city/community segmentation → merch/show/Discord/fan activation.

That is how you turn viral attention into actual leverage.
